Neptune Smiles When He Sees This Quintet in Action

Presenting five of the greatest natators in the world. Honolulu challenges any city in the world to meet this quintet in the water. Three of these stars will perform in the meet this afternoon, the other two being unable to participate. These mermen who have brought much fame to Hawaii hold the relay records for 400 and 500 yards, and no city or state in the union could enter a team capable of winning from this collection. Taking all of the swimmers of America with the exception of those in Hawaii and pick the best five men and Hawaii would make a wonderful showing. On the left is John Keli, who flashed across the swimming horizon last year. He was unknown until Harry Decker picked him up and now Keli is becoming famous in aquatics. He is certain to be in the race this afternoon. Next is George Cunha, who with Duke Kahanamoku, holds the world's record for the 220-yard swim. Cunha is at Schofield and was unable to train for this meet. Next is Duke P. Kahanamoku, the world's fastest sprint swimmer, who has boosted swimming more than any one other natator. Next is Harold ("Stubby") Kruger, the holder of the world's record in the 100-yard backstroke and a wizard in the farlong swim. On the extreme right is Clarence Lane, the young swimmer who is expected to set a new record in the sprints today. He finished right behind Duke in the last race and is counted upon to help Keli and Kruger in upholding the honor of Hawaii in the meet this afternoon.

THEY WEAR RIBBONS

The officials for both days of the meet will be as follows:
Judges—L. Foulard, Leo, Charles K. Stillman, Jr., and G. D. ("Dad") Center.

Starter—Herman von Holt.
Announcer—Glenn E. Jackson.
Scorer—David Lloyd Conkling.
Referee—C. E. ("Ginger") Mayne.

Clerk of the course—Lorin Andrews.
Marshals—A. T. Longley, E. K. ("Dad") Miller and John F. Soper.

The officials for the diving events—Benjamin Clark, Clair Tait and C. E. ("Ginger") Mayne.

A. A. U. Heads
The officials of the local organization of the A. A. U., under whose auspices the swimming meet will be held, are:
William T. Rawlins, president;
A. T. Longley, vice-president;
Lorin Andrews, secretary-treasurer; John F. Soper, Glenn E. Jackson and William T. Rawlins, registrar committee.

AMERICAN EGGS BURST

[By Associated Press]
LONDON, Eng.—Despite the scarcity of eggs and the great demand for them, there are in the warehouses thousands of cases of American eggs left over from last spring, according to a wholesale egg merchant. He says this is due to the fact that the American eggs fell into disfavor with the public because it was found that they burst when boiled. Their explosive quality results, he says, from the method adopted for their preservation.

"In one form or another," he adds, "I have no doubt the British public will yet eat these eggs."

West Virginia State University will construct a $12,000 stadium at Morgantown. It will be of concrete construction, and will seat 6000.

The Indianapolis Athletic and Canoe Club will replace its fire destroyed clubhouse with another costing $40,000.

William Kanakani and Cleghorn Boyd, Hui Nalu.
Albert V. Kaehu and Clarence K. Lane, Palama Settlement.
Perry McGilivray, Illinois Athletic Club.

Norman Ross, Olympic Club, San Francisco.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO JOIN A JUNIOR TENNIS CLUB? SEND IN YOUR NAME

William Johnston, former national tennis champion, has scouted the keynote of the tennis situation as it should be in Hawaii, and no real tennis enthusiast will differ with the great California player. What we need is a club for the juniors in Honolulu.

The boy who wishes to become proficient in tennis should have his chance. Honolulu during the past few years has made a mark in the world of sport and there is no reason why the tennis players of Honolulu should not be represented among the real stars of the game.

Boys in Honolulu will be supplied with courts to play on if there is a demand for them. There are hundreds of tennis enthusiasts in the city who would be interested enough in the promotion of the sport to do their part in establishing a junior club. It will rest strictly with the boys of the city.

Enter Now

Here is a plan that should work out. Every boy between the ages of 12 and 19 who wishes to become affiliated with a junior tennis organization is requested to send his name to the Star-Bulletin. If a number of youngsters take enough interest in the plan steps will be taken at once to secure courts in the city where they may practice and hold their tournaments.

Many of the bright stars in California began to play at the age of 12, and Johnston and Strachan both played in tournaments at the age of 12. If you are one of the boys interested in participating in tournaments send your name in at once and find another boy in your section of the city who will do the same. Become one of the 75 or 100 boys who will be the pioneers in the new movement. They will help.

A. L. Castle, Alan Lowrey, O. Mayall, Harry MacFarlane, Stanley Kennedy and other members of the Tennis Association have at times signified their intention of doing everything possible to boost play among the juniors. Other tennis enthusiasts have offered to donate cups for tournaments.

In San Francisco the boys run their own club, and the older players devote much of their time to boosting the play among the youngsters. One tennis enthusiast when asked if he would assist in organizing a junior club said that he wasn't sure whether the boys were interested or not.

If you know of a boy in Honolulu who would like to be affiliated with a junior tennis club ask him to send his name to the Star-Bulletin. Then we shall see whether or not there is a need for such an organization in Honolulu.

Let the movement come from the boys themselves, and it is certain that the boosters for the great court game will do something to help the plan along. If you have a racquet and play, enter the list. If you haven't a racquet and want to play, send your name just the same. It is up to the boys of Honolulu to decide whether or not there will be a junior tennis club formed in the near future.

50-YARD NATIONAL GOES TO SAN FRANCISCO, MARCH 9

W. T. Rawlins, chairman of the Carnival swimming committee, has received word that San Francisco has been awarded the national championship race for the 50 yards, and this event will be held in Suto Baths on March 9, 1917. Entry blanks may be received at the office of W. T. Rawlins. It is thought that either Clarence Lane or John Keli will make the trip, and should Duke be in condition he may be a representative of Hawaii.

THREE-CENT BALL IS SOUTH BEND PLAN

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Jan. 27.—Three-cent baseball will be seen in this city this year, according to an announcement made by the Chamber of Commerce.

The plan embraces the sale of season books at $1.50 each which are good for 50 games, making the admission per person 3 cents. Admission to the grandstand will cost 25 cents which, the local baseball management declares, will take care of the percentage of the visiting teams, while the sale of the books will pay the running expenses of the locals.

Captain George Smith of the University of Washington football eleven will be forced to undergo an operation as the result of an injury to his right knee during the 1916 season.

University of Virginia will begin its baseball season March 17 meeting Woodberry Forrest nine at Charlottesville.

TENNIS STARS BANQUETED AT COUNTRY CLUB

Visiting tennis players were the guests of the officers and members of the Hawaiian Tennis Association at a dinner at the Oahu Country Club Tuesday evening. The guests of honor were William Johnston, Clarence Griffin and John Strachan of San Francisco, George Church of Tenafly, N. J., and Harold Throckmorton of Elizabeth, N. J.

During the evening O. Mayall of the tennis association presented the prizes to the visitors. Previous to the dinner Harry MacFarlane and Stanley Kennedy made a collection of old coins, which was much appreciated by those present.

George Church, champion of the Orient, in a short talk made a statement that there were only two real tennis players in the United States, and that these two were William Johnston and Dick Williams. Church said that any player who copies the strokes of Johnston will eventually become a great player and further remarked that Johnston had the best form in tennis circles today.

William Johnston and Harold Throckmorton were called upon and both complimented the officers and members of the Hawaiian Tennis Association on the manner in which These records which were published in the Star-Bulletin yesterday afternoon are the first records to be issued for all events staged during the history of swimming in Hawaii under the A. A. U. These records were compiled by the Star-Bulletin, having been taken from the record file and checked with the list of records of the A. A. U. which have been recorded by Lorin Andrews. Heretofore records have been published only for major events.

The recent tournament was handled. John Strachan and Clarence Griffin talked on the value of a love game. Congratulatory remarks were in order and the guests in saying aloha remarked that they would like to come to Honolulu again. Four of the players left on the Wilhelmnia yesterday. Clarence Griffin will remain in Honolulu during the remainder of the Carnival.

Harvard will play 10 football games in 1917.

PORTLAND TEAM MEETS WRECKER TOSSERS TODAY

First Game of Beaver Series Will Be Staged at Athletic Park at 4 This Afternoon

Portland. 25th Infantry. Smith, ss. Swinton, c. f. Rogan, p. Williams, c. f. Gahan, i. f. Clifton, i. f. Hawkins, 1b. Moore, 3b. Schatzlein, p.

Today—At Athletic Park. Game will begin immediately after the swimming meet. Be on hand at 4 o'clock.

After the first Service swimmer has touched the barge in the last race of the day this afternoon the crowd will turn its way toward Athletic Park to greet the Beavers of Portland in their first game during their stay in the city. They will meet the Wrecking Crew at 4 o'clock.

Despite the fact that someone has said that it might be wrong to confuse the fans in their pre-game selections, it looks like a victory for the 25th Infantry this afternoon. Many of the Portland baseball players have come from places where the snow shoe and ski are the principal implements of sport at this time of the year. Hence the dope. Bill Rodgers has been training on ski hurdling with Neils Omvold, the noted performer on the wooden kicks.

There was so much to do yesterday that the McCredes, war correspondents and ball tossers did not know what to do. The writer happens to be an old friend of Judge, Walter, Cronin, Fawcett, Kennedy, Rodgers and other members of the party and there were a number of real fanning bees held while the various Carnival features were being staged.

Yesterday afternoon Walter and the scribes attended the pageant at Kapiolani Park and the quartet had a real day, as the features presented made a big hit with the bunch. They all enjoyed the hula and the Beaver boss wanted to sign up one of the spear catchers to play in the outfield. McCredie met a number of real baseball fans yesterday afternoon, and George Angus, Emil Berndt, Capt. Stayton, Thornton Hardy, John Soper and a number of other members of the committee gave Walter the glad hand and hoped that the first training trip ever held in Hawaii would be a big success.

Ad Club Boosters
The players attended the Ad Club lunch yesterday afternoon and all were pleased with the spirit shown at the booster organization meeting. Fawcett said that he had the first real meal in a week, and when the newspaper representatives arrived at Camp McCredie at TrenTown they fell over themselves boosting the place.

Cronin said that he was surprised at the accommodations and wanted to go on record as favoring Camp McCredie. Like Walter, a Portland boy, said that he liked Mr. Kaukau's cooking at the food emporium, which is under the direction of the Sweet Shop. Everything is new to the boys and you fans can rest assured that the players will go back boosting Hawaii, and the war correspondents have already flashed the news of the arrival and the reception back to the home town papers. Now if Portland can show something this year, McCredie won't have to be coaxed to come here again.

Good Prospects
Between acts at Kapiolani Park yesterday afternoon McCredie told something of the prospects for next year and ventured the statement that if the pitchin' staff held up the pennant would wave over the Vaughn street grounds in the city of Portland, county of Multnomah. Walter has eight pitchers here and the local fans will be given an opportunity to size the squad up.

Portland will have a number of good infielders, and with Borton, Siglin, Southworth and Farmer added to the list when they reach Stockton, the prospects are bright for a good year. It all remains with the hurling corps, and with about 10 prospective state stars Walter should have at least five good hurlers.

New York public schools indoor athletic championships, recently decided, included 1327 youngsters.
